

Content Policy

The Digital College Network is committed to providing high quality content for distribution within college and university bookstores or other locations. It is our policy to produce or acquire content that is not only relevant to our audience but also consistent with publicly accepted broadcast standards. We will not produce or acquire editorial content or accept any advertising that contains any lewd sexual content, tobacco or alcohol advertising or other content that might be offensive or inappropriate. DCN has installed several filters and review procedures in order to ensure the quality, consistency and integrity of the network.
